April 26th, 1915

The Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce,

Ottawa.

Sir:

Mr. K. A. MacMillan, B.A., has asked me to send you a recommendation on his behalf in order to support his application for a Commissionership of Trade and Commerce on his return from the front. I give Mr. MacMillan a recommendation with the greatest pleasure. Others will speak of his academic standing, I can speak of his general character and worth. He was a candidate for the Rhodes Scholarship in January of this year, and he stood very well indeed among those who applied. Everything that I have heard of Mr. MacMillan shows that he is a man of the highest quality, and I have perfect confidence that he will fulfil well whatever work he pledges himself to undertake. There is no doubt as to his training, and I believe no doubt as to his general competency.

Yours sincerely,

President.
